

Air Ambulance Framework

The previous National Air Ambulance NHS Lead (Anthony Marsh) led a sub committee to create a best practise document for all air ambulance charities and services to implement within their organisations to ensure a high and consistent standard of sound governance, operational management and clinical excellence. The document is intended to act as a national structure for local utilisation. A copy of this document can be found at <http://www.airambulanceassociation.co.uk/framework.php>.